

ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION OF MOUNT HOLYOKE COLLEGE

LOYALTY AWARD 2017

PRESENTED TO

Laura S. Althoff '92

LAURA S. ALTHOFF, CLASS OF 1992, the Alumnae Association of Mount Holyoke College is pleased to honor you with the Loyalty Award. This award honors an alumna who has demonstrated exceptional loyalty to the Alumnae Association and/or College with her consistent effort and active involvement over an extended period of time in at least one area of service. Volunteer effort can be on behalf of classes, clubs, global regions, groups, the Alumnae Association, or the College.

Laura, in the years since graduation you have provided loyal service to your class, the College, and your club in numerous roles. For your class, you have served as secretary, class agent, and, currently, reunion chair. For the College, you serve on the Mount Holyoke Fund Volunteer Steering Committee and have worked with the Career Development Center, bringing recruiters to campus and introducing alumnae in executive positions to the staff, helping to arrange internships. For the Mount Holyoke Club of Boston, you have served as secretary, leading networking events with young alumnae.

Your long-term and consistent support of your class, the College, and your club has led to increased networking opportunities, both on campus and off, creating countless relationships and connections between students and alumnae in the workplace. Described as “the force behind the class” by a classmate, you have taken on increased responsibilities over the years, including leading your class in reunion planning. Through your tireless efforts, you have helped continue the tradition of your mother, Kay Greiner Althoff FP’84, one of Mount Holyoke’s first Frances Perkins Scholars, who also had a career with the College.

Laura, for your exceptional loyalty, it is with great pleasure and sincere thanks and appreciation that we present you with the Loyalty Award on this, your twenty-fifth reunion.
