

ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION OF MOUNT HOLYOKE COLLEGE

LOYALTY AWARD 2017

PRESENTED TO

Ludmila Schwarzenberg Bidwell '67

LUDMILA SCHWARZENBERG BIDWELL, CLASS OF 1967, the Alumnae Association of Mount Holyoke College is pleased to honor you with the Loyalty Award. This award honors an alumna who has demonstrated exceptional loyalty to the Alumnae Association and/or College with her consistent effort and active involvement over an extended period of time in at least one area of service. Volunteer effort can be on behalf of classes, clubs, global regions, groups, the Alumnae Association, or the College.

Ludmila, for many years you have shown steadfast dedication to the College. Serving two five-year terms on the board of trustees, you have also served various committees, always coming well prepared, asking pertinent questions, and making innovative suggestions. A current member of the Mount Holyoke College Art Museum Advisory Board, you serve as chair of the museum's Long-Range Planning Committee and member of the Collections Committee. From your home in New York City, you often reach out to prospective students, both in the United States and eastern Europe, where you were born, establishing yourself as an enthusiastic supporter of the College.

Your volunteer service for the College has resulted in the expansion of College programming to be more responsive to students, encouraging international students to consider Mount Holyoke, building community among alumnae in Europe, and making the College more financially solid. You have proven to be "all one can hope for in an alumna," states one board of trustees member.

Ludmila, for your exceptional loyalty, it is with great pleasure and sincere thanks and appreciation that we present you with the Loyalty Award on this, your fiftieth reunion.
