

ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION OF MOUNT HOLYOKE COLLEGE

LOYALTY AWARD 2017

PRESENTED TO

Hope Hockenberry Yelich '72

HOPE HOCKENBERRY YELICH, CLASS OF 1972, the Alumnae Association of Mount Holyoke College is pleased to honor you with the Loyalty Award. This award honors an alumna who has demonstrated exceptional loyalty to the Alumnae Association and/or College with her consistent effort and active involvement over an extended period of time in at least one area of service. Volunteer effort can be on behalf of classes, clubs, global regions, groups, the Alumnae Association, or the College.

Hope, for nearly two decades you have shown strong loyalty to the College and your class by serving in various advancement and class roles. You have displayed consistent leadership by chairing two reunions and encouraging class participation in three mini-reunions. Since 2007 you have served the class as vice president and class agent, while also holding a variety of other reunion and advancement roles. According to one classmate, you are a “star of the world,” who “gets things done.”

Single-handedly organizing several mini-reunions, you brought together classmates in both Delaware and Richmond, Virginia, with one mini-reunion attended by more than one-hundred classmates. Your leadership efforts created amplified class spirit and energy, leading to increased attendance at both on- and off-campus reunions.

Hope, for your exceptional loyalty, it is with great pleasure and sincere thanks and appreciation that we present you with the Loyalty Award on this, your forty-fifth reunion.
