

ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION OF MOUNT HOLYOKE COLLEGE
YOUNG ALUMNA
VOLUNTEER LEADERSHIP AWARD 2017

PRESENTED TO

Margaret Murray Trenis '07

MARGARET MURRAY TRENIS, CLASS OF 2007, the Alumnae Association of Mount Holyoke College is pleased to honor you with the Young Alumna Volunteer Leadership Award. This award honors a young alumna who has demonstrated strong leadership, consistent effort over time, and active involvement in one or more areas of service, resulting in a meaningful accomplishment for the Association and/or College. Volunteer effort may be on behalf of classes, clubs, global regions, groups, the Alumnae Association, or the College.

Margaret, for nearly ten years you have worked tirelessly on behalf of the Mount Holyoke Club of New York City, holding nearly every role, including program chair, young alumnae chair, 7-College conference representative, Program Committee member, and, currently, vice president.

As program chair—a demanding and time-consuming role—you planned and executed events every month, including tours of botanical gardens and a back-to-school brunch. Under your direction, events were successful and challenges were always met with creative solutions. Through your nurturing leadership style, you always focus on reconnecting women with the College. Your welcoming demeanor and love of Mount Holyoke is of great positive influence to those around you. You are known to quietly introduce volunteers to each other, creating a bond among club members that has often translated into a further bond with the College.

Margaret, for your strong leadership, it is with great pleasure and sincere appreciation that we present you with the Young Alumna Volunteer Leadership Award on this, your tenth reunion.
